Terms and Conditions

This warranty is not applicable to any product sold by MaxLite, which is not installed and operated in accordance with:

- The National Electric Code (NEC)
- The Standards for Safety of Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. (UL)
- The Standards of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI)
- The specific instructions provided by MaxLite for the installation of the product(s)

This warranty is also not applicable if the system, lamp and ballast, is operated in abnormal operating conditions: minimum operating temperature 0°F, maximum operating temperature 100°F; 24,000 hours based on 3 hour cycle; not for use with dimmers, timers, motion sensors, or other control devices; operating out of the recommended operating voltage, excessive operating hours or switching cycles, improper lamp and ballast installation, or dirty or cracked sockets. The lamp portion of this warranty is not applicable if the MaxLite lamp is replaced with any other manufacturer's lamp. This entire warranty is not applicable if the MaxLite ballast is replaced with other manufacturer's ballast.

Replacement of Product, Limit of Liability

The forgoing shall constitute the sole remedy of the purchaser and the sole liability of MaxLite. With regard to warranty MaxLite makes no other warranty, statutory or otherwise, and none is implied. No warranty of merchantability of fitness for a particular purpose is made or is to be implied.

MaxLite will not, under any circumstances be liable for special or consequential damages including, but not limited to, the loss of profits or revenue or good will, loss of use of ballasts or any other goods or equipment, or facilities, cost of capital or storage or inspection, cost of substitution equipment, downtime costs, or claims of customers or purchase from such damage.
